Filing Requirements

Standard 3-4.3 Minimum Requirements for Filing and Maintaining Criminal Charges

- ▶ (a) A prosecutor should seek or file criminal charges only if the prosecutor reasonably believes that the charges are supported by probable cause, that admissible evidence will be sufficient to support conviction beyond a reasonable doubt, and that the decision to charge is in the interests of justice.
- ▶ (b) After criminal charges are filed, a prosecutor should maintain them only if the prosecutor continues to reasonably believe that probable cause exists and that admissible evidence will be sufficient to support conviction beyond a reasonable doubt.

Standard 3-4.3 Minimum Requirements for Filing and Maintaining Criminal Charges

- ▶ (c) If a prosecutor has significant doubt about the guilt of the accused or the quality, truthfulness, or sufficiency of the evidence in any criminal case assigned to the prosecutor, the prosecutor should disclose those doubts to supervisory staff. The prosecutor's office should then determine whether it is appropriate to proceed with the case.
- ▶ (d) A prosecutor's office should not file or maintain charges if it believes the defendant is innocent, no matter what the state of the evidence.

Standard 3-4.4 Discretion in Filing, Declining, Maintaining, and Dismissing Criminal Charges

- ▶ (a) In order to fully implement the prosecutor's functions and duties, including the obligation to enforce the law while exercising sound discretion, the prosecutor is not obliged to file or maintain all criminal charges which the evidence might support. Among the factors which the prosecutor may properly consider in exercising discretion to initiate, decline, or dismiss a criminal charge, even though it meets the requirements of Standard 3-4.3, are:

Standard 3-4.4 Discretion in Filing, Declining, Maintaining, and Dismissing Criminal Charges

 - ▶ (iii) the impermissible criteria described in Standard 1.6 above.

(Implicit Biases)

Standard 3-4.4 Discretion in Filing, Declining, Maintaining, and Dismissing Criminal Charges

- ▶ (c) A prosecutor may file and maintain charges even if juries in the jurisdiction have tended to acquit persons accused of the particular kind of criminal act in question.
- ▶ (d) The prosecutor should not file or maintain charges greater in number or degree than can reasonably be supported with evidence at trial and are necessary to fairly reflect the gravity of the offense or deter similar conduct.

Standard 3-4.4 Discretion in Filing, Declining, Maintaining, and Dismissing Criminal Charges

- ▶ (e) A prosecutor may condition a dismissal of charges, nolle prosequi, or similar action on the accused's relinquishment of a right to seek civil redress only if the accused has given informed consent, and such consent is disclosed to the court.
- ▶ A prosecutor should not use a civil waiver to avoid a bona fide claim of improper law enforcement actions, and a decision not to file criminal charges should be made on its merits and not for the purpose of obtaining a civil waiver.

Standard 3-4.4 Discretion in Filing, Declining, Maintaining, and Dismissing Criminal Charges

- ▶ (f) The prosecutor should consider the possibility of a noncriminal disposition, formal or informal, or a deferred prosecution or other diversionary disposition, when deciding whether to initiate or prosecute criminal charges.
- ▶ The prosecutor should be familiar with the services and resources of other agencies, public or private, that might assist in the evaluation of cases for diversion or deferral from the criminal process.

Special Responsibilities of the Prosecutor

Florida Rule 4-3.8: Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor

- ▶ The prosecutor in a criminal case shall:
- ▶ a) refrain from prosecuting a charge that the prosecutor knows is not supported by probable cause;
- ▶ (b) not seek to obtain from an unrepresented accused a waiver of important pre-trial rights such as a right to a preliminary hearing;

Florida Rule 4-3.8: Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor

► (c) make timely disclosure to the defense of all evidence or information known to the prosecutor that tends to negate the guilt of the accused or mitigates the offense, and, in connection with sentencing, disclose to the defense and to the tribunal all unprivileged mitigating information known to the prosecutor, except when the prosecutor is relieved of this responsibility by a protective order of the tribunal.

Our Obligation Applies to Closed Cases The Justice Project

- ▶ The prosecutor who becomes aware of new, credible, and material evidence creating a reasonable likelihood that a convicted defendant did not commit an offense of which the defendant was convicted must contact The Justice Project within our office.

Heightened Duty of Candor

Standard 3-1.4

The Prosecutor's Heightened Duty of Candor

- ▶ (a) In light of the prosecutor's public responsibilities, broad authority and discretion, the prosecutor has a heightened duty of candor to the courts and in fulfilling other professional obligations.
- ▶ However, the prosecutor should be circumspect in publicly commenting on specific cases or aspects of the business of the office.

3-1.4 Heightened Duty of Candor

- ▶ (b) The prosecutor should not make a statement of fact or law, or offer evidence, that the prosecutor does not reasonably believe to be true, to a court, lawyer, witness, or third party, except for lawfully authorized investigative purposes.
- ▶ In addition, while seeking to accommodate legitimate confidentiality, safety or security concerns, a prosecutor should correct a prosecutor's representation of material fact or law that the prosecutor reasonably believes is, or later learns was, false, and should disclose a material fact or facts when necessary to avoid assisting a fraudulent or criminal act or to avoid misleading a judge or factfinder.

3-1.4 Heightened Duty of Candor

- ▶ (c) The prosecutor should disclose to a court legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to the prosecutor to be directly adverse to the prosecution's position and not disclosed by others.

Relations with Judges and Defense Counsel

Standard 3-3.3 Relationship With Courts, Defense Counsel and Others

- ▶ (a) In all contacts with judges, the prosecutor should maintain a professional and independent relationship.
- ▶ A prosecutor should not engage in unauthorized ex parte discussions with, or submission of material to, a judge relating to a particular matter which is, or is likely to be, before the judge.
- ▶ With regard to generalized matters requiring judicial discussion (for example, case-management or administrative matters), the prosecutor should invite a representative defense counsel to join in the discussion to the extent practicable.

Standard 3-3.3 Relationship With Courts, Defense Counsel and Others

- ▶ (b) When ex parte communications or submissions are authorized, the prosecutor should inform the court of material facts known to the prosecutor, including facts that are adverse, sufficient to enable the court to make a fair and informed decision.
- ▶ Except when non-disclosure is authorized, counsel should notify opposing counsel that an ex parte contact has occurred, without disclosing its content unless permitted.

Standard 3-3.3 Relationship With Courts, Defense Counsel and Others

- ▶ (c) In written filings, the prosecutor should respectfully evaluate and respond as appropriate to opposing counsel's arguments and representations, and avoid unnecessary personalized disparagement.

Standard 3-3.3 Relationship With Courts, Defense Counsel and Others

- ▶ (d) The prosecutor should develop and maintain courteous and civil working relationships with judges and defense counsel, and should cooperate with them in developing solutions to address ethical, scheduling, or other issues that may arise in particular cases or generally in the criminal justice system.
- ▶ Prosecutors should cooperate with courts and organized bar associations in developing codes of professionalism and civility, and should abide by such codes that apply in their jurisdiction.

Extrajudicial Comments

- ▶ Except for statements that are necessary to inform the public of the nature and extent of the prosecutor's action and that serve a legitimate law enforcement purpose,
- ▶ refrain from making extrajudicial comments that have a substantial likelihood of heightening public condemnation of the accused and
- ▶ exercise reasonable care to prevent investigators, law enforcement personnel, employees or other persons assisting or associated with the prosecutor in a criminal case from making an extrajudicial statements as well.

Standard 3-1.6 Improper Bias Prohibited

- ▶ (a) The prosecutor should not manifest or exercise, by words or conduct, bias or prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or socioeconomic status.
- ▶ A prosecutor should not use other improper considerations, such as partisan or political or personal considerations, in exercising prosecutorial discretion.
- ▶ A prosecutor should strive to eliminate implicit biases, and act to mitigate any improper bias or prejudice when credibly informed that it exists within the scope of the prosecutor's authority.
